PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

- 5.1 Any description or information, whether by way of advertising, brochures or verbal communication, is done in good faith. An advertisement is considered an invitation to make an offer and is a mere declaration of intention to hold an auction at which bids will be received.
- 5.2 Should the Property be erroneously described herein, or should the area of the Property be found to differ from that stated in the current or any prior title deed, the parties hereby agree to the rectification of the Property description above to conform to the description of the Property as set out in current or prior deeds. - 5.3 In the event that the Property is sold together with contents, then such contents shall be inventoried by the Seller and the Purchaser, or their duly authorised agents, and such inventory shall be attached hereto and initialled by the parties, and which list shall then be binding on the parties.
- 5.4 At the advertised time and prior to the bidding the Auctioneer or its agents may announce terms and conditions which, once announced, are deemed to supersede all previously published terms and conditions and will bind the Purchaser. The announcements will bind the Purchaser even if he or she did not hear or understand the announcement, or was not present at the time of the announcement and such terms and conditions were not brought to his or her individual attention. The Auctioneer has the right to correct any error or mistake made in advertisements, brochures and announcements after it has been brought to his/her attention.

PROPERTY INSPECTION

The property is sold "as is" (voetstoots). The Purchaser acknowledges his/her right in terms of the Consumer Protection Act, No. 68 of 2008 to inspect the Property and/or goods and hereby confirms that a thorough inspection took place prior to his/her offer/the bidding process. The Auctioneer or Seller is not obliged to point out any beacons or boundaries.

SIGNATURE

- 7.1 The Purchaser shall sign this agreement when called upon to do so by the Auctioneer. Should the Purchaser be married in community of property or bid on behalf of a third party, he/she guarantees that the necessary power of attorney to legally bind the joint estate and/or the third party has been obtained and that the transaction shall be concluded in all its facets. The said power of attorney must be submitted on request. The person signing this contract will nevertheless be held personally liable for the fulfilment of all the terms hereof, even though he/she acts on behalf of a principal or spouse.
- 7.2 Should the Purchaser be a company, close corporation or trust, the person signing this agreement on behalf of such Purchaser, by his signature hereto interposes and binds him/herself as surety for and co-principal debtor with the Purchaser for the due and proper discharge of all obligations arising from this agreement.
- 7.3 If the Bidder acts without the abovementioned power of attorney and the said remedies are not involved against the Purchaser, the Bidder will be liable for delictual damages.
- 7.4 The Purchaser acknowledges that he/she was not induced into this contract by any explicit or implied representations.

8

DISPUTES AT THE LIVE AUCTION

- 8.1 In the event of a dispute arising in regards to a bid made, the Auctioneer will have the discretion to put the Property up for auction again and his/her decision will be final. Should the Auctioneer and/or the Seller commit any error in respect of the sale of the Property, such error shall not be binding upon the parties and shall be rectified as soon as the correct information has been brought to their attention.
- 8.2 Should the Purchaser fail to conclude the transaction in all facets, the Auctioneer may resell the Property by auction or private treaty.

Should the Auctioneer have any reason to believe that, during a live auction, a bidder is not able to pay the deposit or the purchase price, he is entitled to refuse a bid from such a bidder, or accept it provisionally, until he is satisfied that the bidder is able to pay the aforesaid amount. Should a bid be rejected under these circumstances, the Property can immediately be put up for auction again.

The Purchaser undertakes to sign all transfer documents and pay the aforesaid transfer costs including transfer duty or VAT and all other expenses on demand. Should this transaction attract VAT, then such VAT shall be borne by the Purchaser and payable on demand.

EXISTING TENANCIES

- 12.1 The Property is sold subject to all existing tenancies, if applicable. The Seller must (i) supply the Purchaser with a copy of the rental agreement before the date of acceptance, and (ii) hand the original rental agreement to the Purchaser on the date of acceptance, or within 7 (SEVEN) days from the date of acceptance.
- 12.2 On or after the date of acceptance, but before the date of registration, neither the Seller nor the Purchaser shall be entitled to give notice to any existing tenant of the Property without first obtaining prior written consent from the other party.
